Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: About a Boy

I bought the movie About a Boy on DVD. It is really annoying that the DVD has a few minutes of ads that cannot be skipped. So, every time I watch the DVD, the ads are there. This is a disc I paid for, not something I watch on television, so I feel I should be able to skip the advertisements
